Community Guidelines for Camp GROW

To encourage and create a harmonious community during this summer camp session, the following guidelines will be used:

- As good citizens, we will respect the grounds, buildings, and property.
- All campers have a responsibility to the group to not leave designated areas.
- Campers will participate in all group activities unless otherwise indicated by parent/guardian.
- All personal belongings must be labeled. Camp GROW is not responsible for items left behind, lost, or stolen.
- Campers and their parents will take responsibility for dressing appropriately.
- Radios, recorders, CD and MP3 players, TVs, skate boards, roller skates/blades, etc., should be left at home.
- There will be no possession or consumption of tobacco or alcoholic beverages.
- There shall be no use, sale, trade or possession of illegal drugs or artificial stimulants.
- There shall be no possession of weapons, knives, and/or guns.
- Inappropriate language (profanity, etc.), innuendos, or gestures will not be used or tolerated.
- Inappropriate displays of affection or sexual activity will not be permitted.
- Show consideration and respect for others through your actions and your words. Be thoughtful and considerate of others during quiet times.
- All campers are to remain on the camp property.
- A written parental release is required to release a camper prior to close of an event.

I have read the Community Guidelines and I agree to abide by them while at Camp GROW. If I break any of the guidelines, I know that my parent or guardian will be called and I may be sent home.
